

Chapter Book Walk:

1. Chapter title:
2. Paraphrase the section objectives, then write a statement explaining what you will need to be carefully looking for as you read the chapter
 - paraphrased obj:

 - What I'll be looking for:

3. What does the introduction (first two paragraphs) tell you about what the chapter will mainly cover?
4. Copy the sentence from the introductory paragraphs that best conveys the thesis statement, that is what the chapter will primarily be focusing upon within this topic.
5. Read the subheadings and topic sentences of the paragraphs after the introduction. What does the author discuss in the beginning, middle, and end of the chapter?
6. Does the chapter have a conclusion or a summary. Read through it and describe any new things you learned by reading it
7. Identify at least two new words that you noticed during your prereading, and determine from the context what you think each new word means.
 - word:
 - clues to meaning:
 - predicted meaning:

 - word:
 - clues to meaning:

-predicted meaning:

8. Is there a vocab list at the beginning or end of the chapter?
9. List three new words from the list of key terms, then scan the chapter and tell me what page they can be found on?
 - 1. _____ pg _____
 - 2. _____ pg _____
 - 3. _____ pg _____